

The Forfar Witches Story

Guided Walk

Explore Forfar's dark past and experience the shocking true story of the Forfar Witches.

The Forfar Witch Trials, which took place between 1661-1663, involved 42 of the town's inhabitants, who were imprisoned and tortured on suspicion of witchcraft. 22 women were found guilty of the crime and executed over the three-year period.

Forfar is situated close to Dundee along the eastern route to the Angus Glens and Highlands in the North.

The Forfar Witches Story guided walk is a one-of-a-kind experience for visitors looking for an authentic heritage experience.
