Newburgh Handloom Weavers

Newburgh Handloom Weavers invites you to travel back in time to experience one of Scotland's oldest skilled trades.

Our Weaving Shed lies nestled in the North East Fife town of Newburgh, by the banks of Scotland's longest river, the Tay. We specialise in the sustainable production of high quality, handwoven tweed, cloth and blankets. These are woven on traditional wooden handlooms built in the 1800s by renowned loom maker, Thomas Kennedy of Galashiels.

Come and join us as we offer you a unique opportunity to participate in this living tradition. We love introducing visitors to our wonderful working handlooms through our Weaving Talks and Demonstrations. We also can arrange Weaving Classes for up to two visitors at a time who wish to have a more in-depth and exclusive weaving experience.
